

PRESS RELEASE

Safe Bag signs an open-ended agreement with Krakow – Balice – John Paul II International Airport- Poland

Milan, 20 February 2018 - Safe Bag S.p.A., world leader in luggage protection and tracing services, notifies that it has, today, signed an open-ended contract for the supply of its own integrated offer of services for passengers at Krakow – Balice – John Paul II International Airport– Poland.

Krakow Airport is the second most important airport in Poland with a total of around 5.8 million passengers in 2017, an increase of 17% with respect to 2016.

The signed contract envisages that business will begin at the end of March 2018 and will not have a termination date since it is open-ended.

“After our open-ended entrance to Warsaw Airport and the temporary entrance to Katozice, we are happy to start business in Krakow and to operate, as mentioned in December, at the 3 largest airports in Poland” – declares Alessandro Notari, CEO of Safe Bag.

“We are concentrated both on acquisitions of new airports for internal and international lines” – declares Rudolph Gentile, President of Safe Bag. “We are expecting – continues Gentile – to further expand penetration in East Europe, thanks also to our acquisition of Pack&Fly”.
