

PRESS RELEASE

Safe Bag wins the bid at Marseilles International Airport (France)

Milan – 4 March 2019 – Safe Bag S.p.a. (AIM Italia, ticker: SOS), world leader in luggage protection and tracing services for airport passengers, announces that it has received formal notification that it has won the bid for the supply of its integrated offer of services for passengers at Marseilles International Airport – France, for a further four years.

Marseilles airport, where Safe Bag has been operating since 2010, is the sixth largest airport in France with more than 9.3 million passengers in 2018. Figures relating to passenger flows in January 2019 confirm a 5.7% growth compared with the same month of 2018.

“The second renewal in Marseilles, with an uninterrupted presence of 13 years if we consider the new expiry date, confirms the potential of our group also in terms of long-term positioning in the airports where we operate – declares Alessandro Notari, CEO of Safe Bag”.
